First-Gen Newsletter

The February Issue!

First-Gen Spotlight

Meet Felicia Echeverria
Felicia is a third-year student at KSU majoring in Psychology. She currently serves as Vice President for the First-Gen Owls (FGO) student organization as well as Membership Chair for Student Philanthropy Council (SPC).

Click to View Full Story!

Scholarship Reminder

Scholarship Applications are due by March 15th. Don't miss out on an opportunity to find funding for college!

Click to Apply for Scholarships

First-Gen Owls General Body Meeting

Date: February 8th
First Gen Owls Dinner Social

FGO would like to extend an invite to their first social event of the semester. It will be a great opportunity to get out and meet other first-gen students like yourself.

Date: February 15th
Time: 8:00 pm
Location: TBD

Scholarship Essay Workshop

The Cultural and Community Centers (CCC) has partnered with the First-Gen Owls to provide some first-hand essay tips, and essay review sessions to help with building a better scholarship essay.

Coming Soon!

Upcoming Career Services Events

The Career Development and Planning Center is hosting the 2019 Spring Two-Day STEM Job, Internship and Co-Op Fair. If you are interested in finding a job, or securing an internship or Co-Op then be sure to register to be a part of this event!

Click Here to Register